Certification Regarding Internet Gambling

We understand that certain transactions* are prohibited from being processed through our account or other relationship with this Institution under the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 ("Act") and related regulations that have been issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the United States Department Of The Treasury ("Regulation GG"). We understand that the Brooklyn Coop FCU deems any Internet gambling to be unlawful unless we are expressly authorized by license issued by an appropriate State or Tribal authority.

We hereby certify that _____ (business name) is not directly or indirectly involved in any restricted transactions* as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG/12 CFR Part 233. We understand that these transactions are prohibited from being processed directly or indirectly through any account or relationship maintained with Brooklyn Cooperative Federal Credit Union.

*Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with unlawful Internet gambling.

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. vers. 6/2018
